

SEMANTIC
POLARITIES AND PSYCHOPATHOLOGIES
IN THE FAMILY

Permitted and Forbidden Stories

Valeria Ugazio

Translated by Richard Dixon

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON

CONTENTS

List of Figures	viii
About the Author	x
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction
1 The Construction of Psychopathological Disorders in Intersubjective Contexts	3
1.1 Four Stories and Several Questions	3
1.2 An Intersubjective Perspective to Psychopathology	8
1.3 Psychopathology and Meaning	11
PART I
The Theoretical Model	17
2 Family Semantic Polarities	19
2.1 A Conversational Definition	19
2.2 A Clinical Example	26
2.3 Origin of the Concept in West and East	30
2.4 Polar Opposition and Intersubjectivity	36
2.5 A Conversation With Three Positionings	40
2.6 Harmony and Excellence: On the Edge of Disaster	46
2.7 Constructing a New Conversational Position	56
2.8 Changing Through Enigmatic Interactions	60
2.9 Difficult Positionings	66

CONTENTS

PART II
Semantics and Psychopathologies	81
3 Semantics of Freedom and Phobic Disorders	83
3.1 A Conversation Dominated by the Semantics of Freedom	83
3.2 A Dilemma That Threatens a Narrative Plot	89
3.3 Permitted Stories and Forbidden Stories	93
3.4 The Interpersonal Context in the Here and Now: A Positioning Balanced Precariously Between Two Subsystems	98
3.5 The "Original" Intersubjective Context: What Phobic Patients Tell Systemic Therapists	105
3.6 Two Clinical Examples	112
3.7 A Pathogenic Cultural Premise?	122
4 Between Good and Evil: Obsessive-Compulsive Disorders	128
4.1 When Life Takes the Side of Evil	128
4.2 The Origins of Doubt	133
4.3 Life: A Forbidden Story?	141
4.4 The Original Triangle	148
4.5 Will Therapy Make Me Feel Worse?	156
4.6 Will You Help Me Get Rid of Bad Natascia?	166
4.7 The Idea of Abstinent Goodness and Psychotherapy	175
5 The Semantics of Power: Anorexia, Bulimia, and Other Eating Problems	181
5.1 More or Less	181
5.2 The Dilemma and the Permitted Stories	189
5.3 Adolescence: A Critical Period	195
5.4 The Intersubjective Context in the Here and Now: An Instigation and a Double Disillusionment	198
5.5 A Family Story over Three Generations	202
5.6 The Idea of Equality as a Breaking Down of Differences	212
6 Depression: Denied Belonging	223
6.1 What Serotonin Doesn't Explain	223
6.2 A Conversation in Which Some Belong and Some are Excluded	228
6.3 The Dilemma and the Adaptive Function of Depression	233
6.4 The Intersubjective Context in the Here and Now	238

CONTENTS

- 6.5 Reconstructing the Original Triangle in Therapy 245
- 6.6 "Crazy Alcoholic Whore" 248
- 6.7 Resources in Depressive Organizations 258

Conclusion: Therapeutic Perspectives 261

7 Family Semantics and the Therapeutic Relationship 261

7.1 And What Position Does the Therapist Take? 263

7.2 As Many Different Therapies as There Are Semantics? 275

Notes 282

Bibliography 293

Index 312