

This book brings together an array of articles on selected aspects of access to justice of LGBTI people in several legal cultures. The essays presented in the book were first delivered at the University of Bergamo in May 2015 during the final conference of the project Litigious Love: Same-Sex Couples and Mediation in the EU which has received funding by the DG Civil Justice of the European Commission. Inspired by the principles of the Access to Justice Movement, this book includes extensive discussion on legal, social, and procedural issues that lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans-gender and intersex people face in accessing justice.

Avvocatura per I Diritti LGBTI – Rete Lenford is an Italian association, founded in 2007, aiming at supporting the rights of LGBTI people in Italy. The members of Avvocatura are lawyers and legal practitioners. In addition, to the legal assistance, Avvocatura per I Diritti LGBTI plays an important role in delivering conferences with national and international experts. Other activities include advocacy, research and publication of studies concerned with LGBTI issues. Avvocatura per I Diritti LGBTI is the coordinator of Litigious Love: Same-Sex Couples and Mediation.

Anna Lorenzetti is a Research Fellow in Constitutional Law and Temporary Lecturer at University of Bergamo; member of Avvocatura per I Diritti LGBTI.

Maria Federica Moscati is a Lecturer in Family Law at University of Sussex and member of Avvocatura per I Diritti LGBTI.
