Reason for embargo request
<input type="checkbox"/> Thesis being published	Thesis already submitted to a publisher, which does not allow open access before publication
<input type="checkbox"/> Public safety reasons	The content of the thesis may endanger public and/or national security
<input type="checkbox"/> Intellectual Property Protection	Industrial property rights: trade marks, patents for inventions or utility models, designs and models, copyright
<input type="checkbox"/> Research project subject to an agreement with third parties	Thesis produced as part of a research project subject to a third party agreement with an external research organisation or funding body: the agreement provides for the dissertation to be disclosed only after completion of the entire research project
<input type="checkbox"/> Privacy	The search concerns one or more persons for whom the right to privacy is feared to be violated
Detailed request description
Please describe the reasons for the embargo, citing the details of any publishing agreements, commercial contracts, research projects etc. for which temporary non-accessibility to the content of the work is requested

Please note that, as stated in the University Regulation on PhDs, the issue of certification of the degree is subject to the deposit of the final dissertation in the university's open access institutional archive: the embargo is therefore temporary and non-renewable.

With the prior authorisation of the teaching board, to be requested with the appropriate form, parts of the thesis may be made unavailable in connection with the use of data protected by trade secrecy under current legislation.
